Title: Third-Year Russian (Semester 2)
Course: RUS 325
Instructor: Keith Livers
Time: T/TH: 12:30-2:00 Place: Parlin 310

Office hours: M: 2:00—4:00
E-mail: Kalivers@mail.utexas.edu.

Course Content: This is the sixth semester of Russian language instruction. Our goal in the course is do develop a working proficiency in the four basic skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. The textbook provides the student with a systematic review of Russian grammar and will be used as the basic skeleton of the course. It will be supplemented using authentic materials taken from the contemporary Russian media. The course is conducted in Russian. At the end of the year (after taking Russian 325), most students should have achieved a proficiency level of 2 on the ILR scale (comparable to Advanced on the ACTFL scale).

Grading. The components of the course grade and their relative weights are:
• Unit exams: 60%
• Daily homework assignments: 20%
• Class participation: 10%
• Oral proficiency exams (end-of-semester): 10%
There is no final in the course. Plus/minus grading will apply.
Please contact the instructor if you have any questions.
