SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

I have been a mentor with the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative since January 2006. The young man I mentor, Marquez Coleman, is now a senior in high school and has expressed an interest in higher education. To that end, I have started a college fund in his name. I plan to raise the necessary funds by running in, and completing, various marathons. So far, I have finished three marathons (Cincinnati 2011, Detroit 2011, Cincinnati 2012). One hundred percent of the proceed have gone towards the college fund, which will help finance Marquez's college applications, tuition, and books.
