RE-EXAMINATION POLICIES

If you fail the final exam but have at least a 70% average on all other coursework, you are eligible to take a re-examination. Submit your re-examination application and a $30 non-refundable fee to University Extension as soon as you know you have failed your final exam. You will see your final exam grade posted in your course once the instructor has graded it.

Re-examination and grading must take place within two weeks of failing your final exam. If the grade on the reexamination is less than a C, a final course grade of F will be recorded.

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY STATEMENT

Evidence of scholastic dishonesty related to examinations in a distance education course will result in a grade of "F" on the examination and an "F" in the course. In this regard, scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion and any act designed to give an unfair academic advantage.

CHEATING includes, but is not limited to:

- copying from another student's paper;
- using materials not authorized by a testing proctor;
- possessing materials that are not authorized by a testing proctor, such as lessons, books, or notes;
- knowingly using or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of a test;
- substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself, in taking a test.
- collaborating with or seeking aid from another student without authorization during a test;
- using, buying, stealing, or transporting some or all of the contents of a test, test rubric, homework answer, or computer program;
- failing to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test.

PLAGIARISM includes, but is not limited to, appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means someone else's work and then submitting that work for credit as if it were one's own.

COLLUSION includes, but is not limited to, unauthorized collaboration with another person in the preparation of an academic assignment offered for credit.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a physical or learning disability, we will make every effort to accommodate your needs with special testing arrangements. However, in order to serve you best, we need to receive proper documentation describing the nature of your disability and suitable accommodations. If you have not yet submitted this documentation to our office, please enclose it with this exam request form.
