

Music: May 26, 2006

<http://www.austinchronicle.com/gyrobase/Issue/column?oid=368460>

TCB

By Christopher Gray

The University of Texas announced last week that its board of regents has approved $14.7 million for an extensive overhaul of Performing Arts Center centerpiece Bass Concert Hall. Slated to begin after commencement exercises next spring, the 18-month project will add a glass facade to the hall's exterior, expand the lobby, atrium, and restrooms, and improve the theatre's lighting and acoustics. During the renovations, the PAC will continue to schedule events at other campus venues, many of which are also expected to undergo similar improvements. Tickets for the PAC's 25th anniversary season, featuring Carol Burnett, McCoy Tyner, Joan Baez, and Mozart's *Requiem, go on sale June 15 at Texas Box Office locations.

Copyright © 2007 Austin Chronicle Corporation. All rights reserved.