

DEPARTMENT OF GERMANIC STUDIES
CORE REQUIREMENT FOR THE MASTER'S DEGREE IN GERMAN

This hand-out is designed to help you keep track of the courses counting towards your degree. Please refer to the departmental brochures on our graduate program for detailed information about the requirements for your degree.

CULTURE:

Cultural History: (usually 382M)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Intellectual History: (usually 382N)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

LINGUISTICS:

Historical/Comparative Linguistics: (usually 381.3 or 381.11)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Synchronic Linguistics: (usually 381.2 or 393.1)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

LITERATURE:

Two Survey Courses: (usually 386)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Bibliography and Research Methods: (389K.1)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

PEDAGOGY: (398T)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

SUPPORTING WORK:

Six hours of supporting work in one of the four core concentration areas: (usually seminars)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Report or Thesis: (398R plus one extra seminar for report option; 698 A & B for thesis)

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Course: _____ Semester: _____ Title: _____ Prof: _____

Remember: With the approval of the graduate advisor, you may take up to 20% of your course work on a credit/no credit basis (2 courses in the 36 hour M.A. program).