

Black Diaspora Pro-Colloquy
(ANT 391)
Fall 2010

Room: EPS 1.128
Instructor: Dr. Edmund T. Gordon
Office Hours: W 9:00 – 12:00

Unique #: 30305
Office: Jester A232A
email: etgordon@mail.utexas.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This seminar is a Pro-Colloquy in which a series of faculty members in and out of anthropology interested in issues of Diaspora discuss their work with seminar participants. The course is meant to give beginning grad students an introduction to Diaspora, critical race, critical gender, and queer theories as well as to the faculty members on campus who teach in these areas. It is given as a critical companion course to the Social Anthropology Core Course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Seminar attendance and participation
2. Preparation of assigned discussion kickoff questions
3. Reading notes handed in at end of each class
4. Research proposal, presentation, and revision

READINGS WILL BE AVAILABLE ON ELECTRONIC RESERVES

<http://reserves.lib.utexas.edu/eres/coursepage.aspx?cid=4643&page=docs>

Sequence of Presenters

9/1 Gordon – Austin School Manifesto : M’bewe, Kim
9/8 Gordon – Archeology of Black Culture: Kat, Jannie
9/15 Joao Costa Vargas: Adam
9/22 Matt Richardson: Dominique
9/29 Charles Hale: M’bewe
10/6 Michael Ray Charles: Kim
10/13 Juliet Hooker: Traci
10/20 Maria Franklin: Jannie
10/27 Jemima Pierre: Traci, Maya
11/3 Simone Brown: Dominique, Adam
11/10 Omi Osun Joni Jones: Maya
11/17 Cherise Smith: Kat
11/24 Presentations
12/1 Presentations