

LLILAS Visiting Researchers and Scholars Spring 2008

Kathleen Dill – ENGLAND

Associate Researcher, Kings College

to prepare dissertation, “Mediated Pasts, Negotiated Futures: Human Rights and Social Reconstruction in a Maya Community,” for publication and to prepare a series of articles

June 2007 to June 2008

kathyswebmail@yahoo.com

Romeo Hristov – BULGARIA

Executive Secretary, FRAME

to research archaeological data from Mexico and Central America that may be related to long-distance pre-Colombian contacts and cultural exchanges

May 2007 to May 2008

rhrstov_00@yahoo.com

Hye-Jeong Jeong– SOUTH KOREA

Professor, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies

to research a comparative study of the idiomatic expressions in the Chicano Spanish and Mexican Spanish

January 2008 to February 2009

hyejeong@hufs.ac.kr

Guillaume Boccara– FRANCE

Professor, Universidad Catolica de Chile

to research on Neoliberal multiculturalism in Chile and Argentina and the shaping of the bordelands in the Americas

February 2008

gboccara@ucn.cl

Paola Bolados– CHILE

Researcher

To research multiculturalism, the role of state and indigenous issues in Chile

February 2008

paobolados@yahoo.com.ar

Adriana Lisboa– BRAZIL

Researcher/Writer

to research Southwestern culture, Native American legends and myths

January 2008 to January 2009

alisboa@unm.edu

Guillermo Padilla– COLOMBIA

Professor, CIESAS

to research indigenous people’s political representation in Latin America

February 2008 to March 2008

guipadillar@yahoo.es

Andrea Muñoz – BRAZIL

Researcher, UNICAMP

to research regionalization and public policies to the development in Rio Grande do Sul/Brazil and Texas/USA

March 2008 to May 2008

aemunoz@gmail.com

Felipe Campuzano – MEXICO
Professor, UNAM
to research Nationalism in Mexico and Latin America

April 2008
campuzanovfa@gmail.com

Dino Bruzzone – ARGENTINA Artist
to research Latin American history of rock since 1960 to 1990

February 2008
none provided

Lorraine Leu – UNITED KINGDOM
Professor, Ajou University to research on criminality in social thought and cultural representation in Rio de Janeiro through cinematic representation

March 2008 to April 2008
Lorraine.Leu@bristol.ac.uk

Mark Everingham – USA
Professor, Southwestern University to research comparative analysis of national laws and international initiatives to fortify the autonomous rights of indigenous peoples to reclaim and govern communal lands

March 2008 to December 2008
everingham@uwgb.edu

Leslie Nichols – USA
Master Student, St. Mary's University San Antonio to research Castro's visit to Chile and the role of the media in Allende's overthrow

January 2008 to August 2008
lnichols@stmarvtx.edu

Salvador Corrales – MEXICO
Researcher, Colegio de la Frontera Norte to research "Cambio de Patron en la Industrializacion de Monterrey"

May 2008 to May 2009
corrales@dns.colef.mx