The rigor of Camp Shakespeare prompts us to ask about the camper's health. Does the applicant have allergies, special diet needs, chronic illness, etc.? Please explain the condition of the applicant's health.

What performance activities have you participated in during the past year?

Camp Shakespeare uses an ensemble approach to play and performance. The emphasis at camp is on everyone working and playing together, on everyone sharing everything. What members of your Camp Shakespeare experiences would you single out as exemplary in this effort?

What Camp activities did you like most? Why?

Describe your most difficult challenge at Camp Shakespeare and explain what strategies you used to face that challenge.

What specific things about your character(s) did you like? _____

If you are chosen to return to Camp this summer, what kinds of things would you do differently?

Two essays:

Select for analysis a speech of some 4-6 lines from the play you were in. Explain what the lines mean and why you think it is important to the character or to the play at large. Print the speech at the top of the page and follow with your comments.

Please attach an essay in which you (1) explore what you think was your most significant contribution to your prior Camp Shakespeare experience and (2) the most significant contribution of another camper.

Please attach these essays to the application.
