

Abriendo Brecha IX

Activist Scholarship Conference

Warfield Center for African and African Studies JES A230 Gallery

Friday, February 17

Keynote Speaker: Frank Wilderson III 12-1:30PM

Wilderson is the award-winning author of Incognegro: A Memoir of Exile and Apartheid. He is one of two Americans to hold elected office in the African National Congress and is a former insurgent in the ANC's armed wing, Umkhonto we Sizwe. His captivating memoir received the American Book Award and the Zora Neale Hurston/Richard Wright Legacy Award among others.

Activist Research Panel 2-4:30PM

Tiara Naputi, Department of Anthropology, "Guahan Coalition of Peace and Justice" (Guam)

Sade Anderson and Haile Eshe Cole, Department of Anthropology, "Mamas of Color Rising"

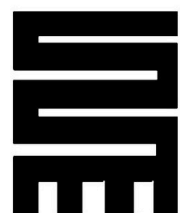

Cory LaFevers, Ethnomusicology, "Projeto Yabas" (Brazil)

Luciane Rocha, Department of Anthropology, "Violence, Black Women and Activism in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil"

Jorge Antonio Renaud, School of Social Work, "Red Salmon Arts/Save our Youth"

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN
DIVISION OF DIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

THE JOHN L. WARFIELD CENTER FOR AFRICAN & AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN