

APPLICATION FOR CAMPUS FUSION 2009 EXECUTIVE BOARD POSITIONS

Deadline: 5:00 pm February 27th to Erica Saenz at ericasaenz@austin.utexas.edu

Campus Fusion is the culmination of the "Week of Dialogue," a collaborative vision built by the Multicultural Information Center and Student Government. Now in its seventh year, Campus Fusion is presented by the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement and The University Co-op. Through different programs during the week students, faculty, staff and community members recognize the importance of talking about issues of diversity while celebrating the variety of cultures and ethnicities present on the Forty Acres. For more information, please visit www.campusfusion.org.

The following positions are available on the Campus Fusion Executive Board:

- Co-Directors (2)
As the only two paid positions on the Campus Fusion Executive Board, the Co-director positions are considered to be the principal organizers and will be paid an hourly rate by the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement. As such, applicants should treat this application as a serious employment opportunity. Campus Fusion co-directors must be in Austin and available to work on Campus Fusion during Spring, Summer and Fall 2009. Co-directors will be expected to contribute 10-20 hours per week toward the completion of Campus Fusion between March and October 2009. In addition to paid time, some work for Campus Fusion will be considered voluntary. Campus Fusion is a significant time commitment.
- Secretary/Historian (1)
The duties of Secretary/Historian include creating meeting agendas, keeping minutes during each Executive Board meeting, sending out the minutes on the Executive Board listserv after each meeting, keeping track of correspondence and thank you notes, as well as preparing the scrapbook after the week's events have concluded.
- Publicity Chair (2)
The duties of the Publicity Chairs are to develop materials for publicity (save-the-date postcards, save-the-date shirts, flyers, etc.) during the summer as well as the weeks leading up to the week. It is also highly encouraged that the chairs possess computer graphic skills relevant to websites as well flyers, shirts, etc.
- Day Chairs (5)
The duties of Day Chairs are to lead the planning for and execute events for their given day of programming. Typically each day will come with an afternoon event and an evening event. Also, the Day Chairs will work with Student Government and the Multicultural Information Center.
