PROPOSED NEW CATALOG TEXT:

The Interior Design Minor

The Interior Design Minor is designed to provide a foundation in interior design and architecture concepts for students outside of the School of Architecture. Undergraduates outside of the School of Architecture with a University grade point average of at least 2.5 may take any course listed below, whether pursuing the Interior Design Minor or not. Students may obtain only one minor from the School of Architecture. Please see the Course Schedule to determine if instructor permission is required.

Students who know they intend to complete the Interior Design minor should apply online at the earliest possible date; deadlines are March 1 for fall or summer, and October 1 for spring.

To fulfill the Interior Design Minor students must complete fifteen semester hours of coursework as described below. At least half of the coursework must be completed in residence at The University of Texas at Austin. All coursework must be taken on the letter-grade basis, and completed in conjunction with the students’ major requirements. Six hours must be upper-division.

Registration for upper-division courses will require successful completion of 60 semester hours of coursework.

Students pursuing the Interior Design Minor may choose from among the following courses:

Lower-division:
Architectural Interior Design 318K, 318M; Architecture 308, 309W, 318K, 318L.

Upper-division:
Architectural Interior Design 338, all Interior Design courses in the Architectural Interior Design 342 series; 368R; Architecture 342A-Z.
In addition to the above courses students may count any undergraduate Interior Design course toward the minor; this allows former interior design majors to use courses completed while in the School of Architecture toward their coursework for the Interior Design Minor. Unnumbered interior design or architecture topics courses (ARI or ARC 350R) completed prior to Fall 2016 also may count.
