

A symposium sponsored by
The University of Texas at Austin
Donald D. Harrington Fellows Program in collaboration with the School of Architecture

WEATHER PATTERNS

Climate, Culture, and Place Making

J.D. Connor

Get Out of My Swamp: Hollywood and the Limits of Allegory
Visual & Environmental Studies, Harvard University

Robert L. France

Thoreau and White: Rooted in Place in a Shifting Climate Independent Scholar, Canada

Werner Krauss

Locating Global Climate Change: Ethnographic Field Notes
Germanic Studies, The University of Texas at Austin

P.H. Liotta

Black Storms Rising: Weather Effects and Policy Paralysis
Pell Center, Salve Regina University

Steven A. Moore

Technology and Place Reconsidered
Architecture, The University of Texas at Austin

Allan W. Shearer

Make the Weather
Harrington Fellow, The University of Texas at Austin

Goldsmith Hall, Room 3.120
22nd and Guadalupe Streets
Saturday, February 7, 2009
9:30 a.m.—6:00 p.m.