

The Career Services Office and the William Wayne
Justice Center for Public Interest Law Present:

Lives in the Law Speaker Series: Fighting for Social Justice in Louisiana

Tracie L. Washington, '89

President, CEO, The Louisiana Justice Institute

Monday, November 5, Sheffield Room, 11:30 to 1:30

11:30 - The post-Hurricane Katrina legal landscape

12:30 - Ms. Washington's life in the law

Lunch served at 11:30 and 12:30

Attend one or both sessions

"Lives in the Law" is an occasional speaker series focusing on the work and lives of lawyers who strive to improve the lives of others through litigation, advocacy, and public service.

Cosponsored by the Chicano/Hispanic Law Students Association, Concerned Students for LRAP, Human Rights Law Society, Middle Eastern Law Students' Association, Public Interest Law Association, and Thurgood Marshall Legal Society

