

The University of Texas School of Law
Domestic Violence Clinic
Instructor: Jeana Lungwitz
Application for Admission
Spring 2010

Please answer the following questions and submit this application to Jeana Lungwitz (jlungwitz@law.utexas.edu) and Anna Borne (aborne@law.utexas.edu) via e-mail. Preference will be given to those students who have taken or are now taking Professor Buel's "Domestic Violence and the Law" course and the trial advocacy survey course, but these are not a prerequisite. Please note that this is a litigation clinic and court appearances may sometimes require that you miss class. You will be first chairing your cases. You may not take another clinic or internship at the same time that you take this clinic. In addition to class, you will be expected to document an average of eleven hours per week on your cases plus four hours per week phone duty.

Name: _____ Graduation Date: _____
Social Security Number: _____ Phone Number: _____ E-mail _____

1. Have you taken any family law, domestic violence, trial advocacy, evidence, or civil procedure courses? (This is not a prerequisite.) If yes, please list them:
2. Have you had any experience working with domestic violence victims? If so, please describe:
3. Have you had any experience working on protective order, divorce, custody, visitation, child support, child abuse, criminal domestic violence or other family law cases? If so, please describe:
4. Are you fluent in any languages, other than English? (Spanish, Sign, etc.) If so, please list:
5. Have you taken another clinic? If so, which one(s)?
6. Are you applying for any other clinics this semester? If so, please list them and rank them in the order of your preference (with #1 being your first choice).
7. Would you be available to stay late for a mandatory long class on Tuesday, January 19th, from 2:30 – 7:30? Yes _____ No _____

NOTE: This is a mandatory class meeting. You may not participate in this Clinic if you do not attend. Please write this date on your calendar now.

8. Upon graduation, are you planning to engage in any domestic violence practice, as a defense attorney, family law attorney, or in any other area, either pro bono or for pay? If so, please describe:
9. Please write a brief (1 – 3 paragraph) explanations as to why you are interested in being part of the UTSL Domestic Violence Clinic (feel free to use the back of this form or to attach an additional sheet).