

UT Parking and Transportation has changed the rules!!

Parking Options for the TXLA November Meet

PLEASE READ

The University of Texas now requires that you have a UT permit to park in any C lot (including C lot 80 in front of the Swim Center) or along San Jacinto behind the Swim Center AT ALL TIMES. So only park in C lot 80 if you have a UT permit OR if there is an attendant and you can pay to park – you must display your receipt to avoid a ticket.

Friday

There is a women's basketball game so Lot 80 and Trinity Garage may fill up. State Garages will be charging $7 per entry.

Parking Options:

1. Park in the Manor garage on the UT campus (they charge $10 and there's no in/out privileges).
2. Drop your swimmers off at the Swim Center and park for free at Disch-Falk Field just east of I-35. Free parking begins at 5:45PM.
3. Pay $7 to park in one of the State Garages (not an open lot) at the intersection of 17th St. and San Jacinto St. just south of the Swim Center

Saturday

Lot 104, next to Disch-Falk Baseball Stadium has been reserved for the entire day by 2 events.

Parking Options:

1. Park in the Manor garage on the UT campus (they charge $10 and there's no in/out privileges).
2. Park in one of the State Garages (not an open lot) at the intersection of 17th St. and San Jacinto St. just south of the Swim Center. These should be free Saturday.

Sunday

A Men's basketball game is scheduled for 1 pm.

Parking Options:

1. Park in the Manor garage on the UT campus (they charge $10 and there's no in/out privileges).
2. Drop your swimmers off at the Swim Center and park for free at Disch-Falk Field just east of I-35.
