

Name: _____ UTEID: _____
Date: _____ Department: _____
Phone #: _____ Date of Birth (mm/dd): _____

Circle the letter of the correct answer to the questions.

CW170 – ITS Security Awareness

1. The fundamental policy governing the use of technology at The University of Texas at Austin is the:

- a) Acceptable Use Policy or AUP.
- b) The Texas Public Information Act.
- c) Category-I Data.
- d) The ITS Policy.

2. To create a strong password:

- a) Spell a word backwards.
- b) Use your name.
- c) Consider using a phrase.
- d) Repeat letters in a row.

3. Which of the following steps will help you to secure your computer?

- a) Do nothing—you aren't responsible for securing your computer.
- b) Use the same password for all of your accounts.
- c) Set your security software to automatically check for updates.
- d) All of the above.

4. You are responsible for any actions initiated on the university network using your EID.

- a) True.
- b) False.

5. It is a violation of university policy to:

- a) Share a password.
 - b) Disclose Category-I data without authorization.
 - c) Use campus resources to illegally download copyrighted materials..
 - d) All of the above.
-

6. University e-mail and instant messaging are:

- a) Not private.
- b) Not subject to an open records request.
- c) Safe for sending credit card numbers.
- d) None of the above.

7. An “open records” request:

- a) Provides the public with access to university libraries.
- b) Provides an EID to those who request one.
- c) Provides the public with access to university business information.
- d) Provides the public with Bevo Ware.

8. If you receive a suspicious e-mail or IM message, you should call the phone number provided in the message to confirm the authenticity of the sender.

- a) True.
- b) False.

9. When using e-mail or IM:

- a) Only open attachments if they are from friends.
- b) Only click on Web links if they are from friends.
- c) Remember that viruses, spyware, and online scams are often spread through electronic communications.
- d) All of the above.

10. University employees who infringe upon copyrighted materials:

- a) May be fined.
 - b) Are protected by the University from criminal prosecution.
 - c) Must share the materials with others.
 - d) None of the above.
-