

Graduate Student Request for University Extension Credit

For use by the Office of Graduate Studies

In regard to extension classes, the Graduate Catalog states the following:

Up to six semester hours of work done in extension classes through the University's Division of Continuing and Extended Education may be listed on the Program of Work, with the approval of the Graduate Studies Committee and the graduate dean. The extension credit must be in graduate courses; the courses and instructors must be approved in advance by the Graduate School and by the program in which the student would otherwise take the work on campus; and the student must be admitted to the Graduate School before taking the extension courses.

All grades in graduate courses taken through the Division of Continuing and Extended Education are included in the graduate grade point average.
