

Roy Crane Award for Outstanding Creative Achievement in the Literary Arts Spring 2009 Nomination Form

The Roy Crane Award for Outstanding Achievement in the Arts is given each year to a student of The University of Texas at Austin for unique, creative effort in the performing, literary and visual arts. An undergraduate or graduate student from any major area of study may compete for the award. The selection committee will give no weight to any entrant's grade point average or other academic achievement.

To insure that an entrant's work may be compared with similar forms of creativity, each year the award committee designates an area of the arts. This year the award will be given in the Literary Arts. In 2010 the award will be given in the Visual Arts. In 2011 the award will be given in the Performing Arts.

The deadline for nominations is April 17, 2009. Both parts of this form and supporting materials must be received by the above deadline. Nominations are to be sent to: Michael Acuña, Flawn Academic Center (FAC), Room 15, Campus Mail Code G1000.

Part I must be completed by the nominating faculty member. Only ONE nominating letter per student will be accepted. Faculty may nominate up to two students.

Part II must be completed by the student nominee and submitted with the work to be considered.

If you have any questions or need more information, contact Michael Acuña by phone (232-7841) or e-mail (macuna@mail.utexas.edu).
