Statements of the Dean and Department Chair:

The Dean and the Department Chair (and/or Director, where applicable) must provide separate assessments of the faculty member's overall performance and accomplishments as a member of the academic community that are distinct from the assessment of the Budget Council/Executive Committee. These assessments should include a review of the candidates achievements and contributions as a faculty member in the following areas: (a) teaching, both undergraduate and graduate; (b) research, creative, and other scholarly activities; (c) advising, counseling and other student service; (d) service, including administrative and committee service, as well as public service of an academic or professional nature to the nation, state and community; and (e) other evidence of merit or recognition such as fellowships, grants, honors, and election to office in scholarly or professional organizations.

The statements of the Dean, Department Chair (and/or Director) should immediately follow this form. Include the Budget Council/Executive Committee statements on (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) at the beginning of the respective sections.
