The Proposal

1. Please provide course description(s) and draft(s), adapted to the six-week format, of the course syllabi.
2. Please explain your rationale for choosing the course and the proposed location. How do you expect the location to influence your teaching and student learning? What are your academic and program goals?
3. Which student population(s) are you targeting? Whom do you expect your proposed program to draw and why? What avenues are open to you through your department and college for reaching them? Will the course you propose satisfy a major or degree requirement for your target group(s)?
4. How does the proposed program fit departmental and college goals of providing students international experiences?
5. Please briefly outline your experience teaching the proposed course or similar courses at UT or abroad. Please include teaching evaluation summaries for the last two years. Summaries are available at <https://utdirect.utexas.edu/mec/cis>
6. Please list a few local sites that could be visited during the course of the program and their academic/cultural relevance.
7. List two possible destinations for weekend excursions and their academic/cultural relevance.
