CLASS AUDITOR REGULATIONS

• Permission to audit a course may be secured from the instructor only after the first class day.
• Permission to audit entitles the student to attend class, but not to submit papers, participate in class discussions, laboratory, fieldwork, or receive evaluations. No academic record or transcript is provided.
• Payment of the non-student audit fee (see below) does not entitle the individual to university student privileges.

PROCEDURE FOR CURRENTLY ENROLLED STUDENTS

• Secure the signature of the instructor for each course to be audited.
• Secure your academic dean's approval; the dean's office will forward the permit to the registrar for processing.
• Once the approval process is completed, you may not register for the same class in the same semester.

PROCEDURE FOR NON-STUDENTS

• Secure the instructor's signature for each course to be audited.
• Take this form to the cashier (Office of Accounting) in Main 8 to pay the fee, if required.
  (The cashier will forward the paid permit to the Office of the Registrar.) If no fee is required, take the form to the Office of the Registrar.

FEES

• A fee of $20 per course is required of individuals under the age of 65 who are not currently registered at the University.
• If library privileges are desired, a courtesy borrower card may be purchased at PCL Circulation Services.

I request permission to audit the following course(s) during: fall____ spring____ summer____, 20____
